

I NEED A NEW HOME

Hi! My name is Gracie.

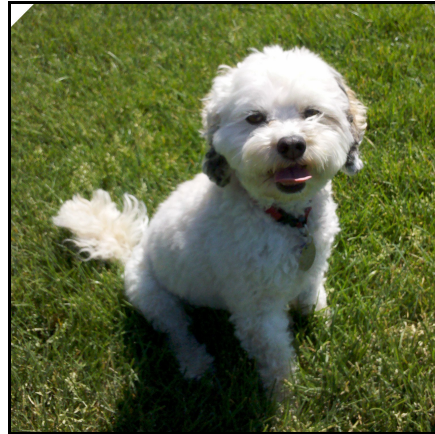

My parents lives are changing and they need to be gone a lot. So I must find a new home. We are all very sad but comforted by the fact that I will bring as much love and joy into a new home as I have theirs. It is not easy to find a new family so I thought if I told you about myself it would help.

I will be 5 years old on November 9th. I am an 8 lb. cockapoo which is part cocker spaniel (very loving), part poodle (very smart) and petite for my breed! A really cool part about me is that I do not shed, because I have hair just like you, not fur.

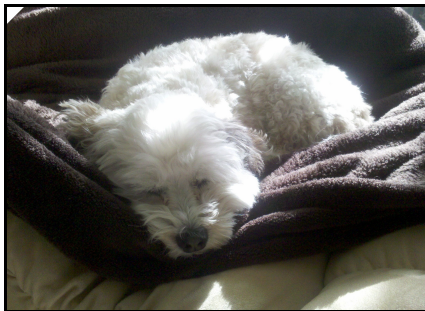

Even though it sounds like bragging I am very smart. I have my own special language for when I am hungry and when I need to go out to go potty. My parents tell me I am really smart because I understand lots of words and we talk to each other just like friends. Not sure why, but I just don't like to be alone all the time. I really need a home where someone would be with me a lot! I love attention, love to be rubbed, especially my ears, and treats are a real favorite.

My best side.

Aren't I cute??!!

I love my nap time!!

My most favorite thing in the whole world is to walk. I love it when it is time to go and the leash comes out of the closet. I am always ready to go explore and I can run really, really fast. So, I guess it is said best.... I love to be loved and to give love as I am very affectionate. If you have a big heart and want a loving, fun friend then please consider me.

PS. I overheard my folks talking the other day and this seems really hard on them. They love me a lot, that I know, and now I need another family who will do the same.

You may call my parents Daniel and Carol Garvin at 707/578-7677 if you are seriously considering an addition to your family. I need a new home soon.
